

Marketplace Provider Certificate of Collection

New York State and Local Sales and Use Tax

This form is completed by the marketplace provider and given to the marketplace seller.

A marketplace provider must issue this certificate to its marketplace sellers if the certification language on page 2 is not included in a publicly-available agreement between the marketplace provider and the marketplace seller.

This form certifies that the marketplace provider, not the marketplace seller, will collect and remit sales tax on the sales that it facilitates. It also allows the seller, if needed, to substantiate to the Tax Department why it did not collect and remit sales tax on its marketplace sales. For more information, see TSB-M-19(2)S, Sales Tax Collection Requirement for Marketplace Providers.

Instructions

A marketplace seller is relieved from liability for the collection of sales tax if it receives Form ST-150, Marketplace Provider Certificate of Collection, from its marketplace provider. This form certifies that the marketplace provider is registered to collect sales tax and will collect and remit sales tax on the sales that it facilitates.

A marketplace provider who has a publicly-available agreement and includes the following statement, or one that is substantially similar, in its publicly-available agreement with its marketplace sellers, does not need to issue Form ST-150 to such sellers:

[Marketplace provider name] is a registered New York State sales tax vendor and will collect sales tax on all taxable sales of tangible personal property that it facilitates for delivery to a New York State address.

This provision will have the same effect as a marketplace provider's issuance of Form ST-150 to a marketplace seller.

Marketplace providers

A marketplace provider is a person who, pursuant to an agreement with a marketplace seller, facilitates sales of tangible personal property by a marketplace seller. A person "facilitates a sale of tangible personal property" when:

- the person provides the forum in which, or by means of which, the sale takes place, or the offer of sale is accepted, including a shop, store, or booth; an Internet website, catalog; or similar forum; and

- the person (or an affiliate) collects the receipts paid by a customer to a marketplace seller for a sale of tangible personal property, or contracts with a third party to collect the receipts. See Tax Law §1101(e)(1) for the definition of affiliate.

Marketplace sellers

A marketplace seller is defined as any person who has an agreement with a marketplace provider under which the marketplace provider will facilitate sales of tangible personal property for the marketplace seller.

Liability relief for marketplace sellers

A marketplace seller who is registered to collect New York State sales tax is relieved from the duty to collect tax on a sale of tangible personal property and should not include the receipts from the sale in its taxable receipts if:

- the marketplace seller can show that the sale was facilitated by a marketplace provider from whom the marketplace seller has received, in good faith, a properly completed Form ST-150 certifying that the marketplace provider is registered to collect sales tax and will collect sales tax on all taxable sales of tangible personal property by the marketplace seller facilitated by the marketplace provider; and
- any failure of the marketplace provider to collect the proper amount of tax on a sale was not the result of the marketplace seller providing the marketplace provider with incorrect or insufficient information.

This relief of liability does not apply if the marketplace seller and marketplace provider are affiliated.

Form ST-150 is one of the records that must be retained by a marketplace seller. See Tax Bulletin ST-770, Recordkeeping Requirements for Sales Tax Vendors.

Where the statement provided above is not included in a publicly-available agreement between the marketplace provider and its marketplace sellers, the marketplace provider must provide its marketplace sellers with a properly completed Form ST-150 not later than ninety days after facilitating such marketplace sellers' sales.
